BANI WORLD created by anthropologist Jamais Cascio

Brittle

A virus quarantines the entire world, a glitch in a system closes a store, a misstep by an executive brings the company down on the stock exchange, a plague destroys a plantation...

Anxious

Uncertainty causes us anxiety. The sense of urgency guides many decisions. An opportunity can appear in a short window of time and needs to be seized...

Nonlinear

Large planning may not make as much sense in the BANI world. Everything is in constant change, so you must adapt your business to be part of this reality...

Incomprehensible

We seek answers to everything, based on the numerous information we receive. Putting together a data-driven strategy may not work, because human beings change their minds and the market repositions itself all the time...

Perfil demográfico

A pesquisa Tendências de Gestão de Pessoas 2025 foi realizada entre dezembro de 2024 e janeiro de 2025 com 2134 respondentes de diversos estados do Brasil e de organizações dos mais variados setores, sendo Tecnologia e Telecomunicações, Indústria e Serviços os mais alcançados.

São Paulo, Paraná e Minas Gerais são os estados com maior representatividade e, considerando o faturamento, atingimos empresas em todas as situações.

Gerentes e coordenadores representam a maior parte do público, formado também majoritariamente por profissionais de Recursos Humanos.

Neste ano, mapeamos também algumas informações sobre o cargo de CEO das empresas. A maioria dos respondentes atua em empresas com homens na posição de CEO (79%), e somente 21% das empresas têm mulheres nessa função.

Demographic profile

The People Management Trends 2025 survey was carried out between December 2024 and January 2025 with 2134 respondents from various states in Brazil and from organizations in the most varied sectors, with Technology and Telecommunications, Industry and Services being the most widely reached.

São Paulo, Paraná and Minas Gerais are the most representative states and, considering revenue, we reached companies in all situations.

Managers and coordinators represent the majority of the audience, which is also composed mostly of Human Resources professionals.

This year, we also mapped some information about the position of CEO of companies. The majority of respondents work in companies with men in the CEO position (79%), and only 21% of companies have women in this role.

What were the main People Management challenges in 2024?

"START WITH WHY"

THE GOLDEN CIRCLE

"START WITH WHO"

THE GOLDEN SPIRAL

1. You attract who you are

Most communities are a mirror of their founders.

2. It is all about people

People tend to join a community because it reflects its vision. But they will stay (or not) because of their people.

3. Values>Objective

It is important to be aligned around a common purpose.

4. Limits are important

Many communities struggle with the issue of whether to open or close. Most want to be inclusive but feel the need for some type of boundary to protect what has been created. In other words, there is a tension between diversity and coherence.

*THE WHY IS A GOOD STORY. THE WHO IS THE LIVED EXPERIENCE.
THE WHY ADAPTS AS THE WORLD CHANGES. THE WHO POSITIONS ITSELF TO CHANGE
THE WORLD.
THE WHY IS AN OPEN INVITATION. THE WHO ESTABLISHES A HEALTHY LIMIT.*

“The problem is that we treat leadership with intensity. It is not about intensity; it is about consistency.”

“There is nothing I can tell you to do that will make your team trust you. It simply does not work that way. It is an accumulation of many small things.”

“If you have a really strong organizational culture, people will think of each other.
Common beliefs, common values”

1. RAPPORT BUILDING

2. CURIOSITY

3. CONFLICT RESOLUTION

4. COMMUNICATION 5. AMBITION

1

“The ability to express yourself clearly, diplomatically and politely is essential for building affinity in an assertive way.”

2

“Express genuine interest in others – there is no better way to get people interested in you.”

3

“An honest and detailed evaluation of the situation, including your own needs, is the first step to resolving.”

4

“Expressing yourself more carefully can save company time, and perhaps money.”

5

“Reward, recognition, praise. It does not matter how you do it; what matters is that you do it repeatedly.”

“How are you outside the battlefield?

“What type of person are you?”

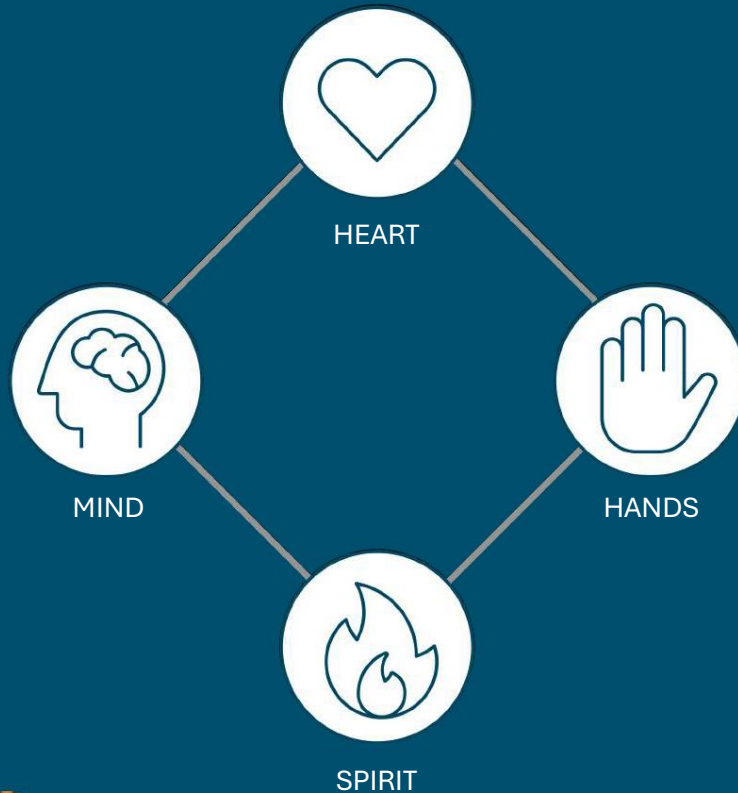

“Nobody wants this person: low performance and low reliability. Of course!”

“High performance and low reliability: toxic leader and toxic team member.”

“Many metrics to measure performance and few or none to measure someone's reliability.”

“Then we end up promoting or rewarding toxicity in our business.”

EMPLOYEE ENGAGEMENT

Engagement is an emotional state in which we feel passionate, excited and committed to our work.

As a result, we invest the best of ourselves - our hearts, spirits, minds and hands - in doing our job.
